

Circle of Courage® Model ~ ½-Day Workshop
Rushmore Plaza Holiday Inn, Rapid City, South Dakota
Saturday, June 23, 2012 8:00 a.m. - Noon

Reclaiming Youth International will conduct a half-day Circle of Courage® Model workshop prior to our 19th Annual Black Hills Reclaiming Youth Conference. Larry Brendtro, Martin Brokenleg, and Steve Van Bockern, authors of Reclaiming Youth at Risk: Our Hope for the Future and developers of the Circle of Courage® Model are pleased to host this informational and inspirational event. See below for registration details.

The workshop includes a foundational discussion of the Circle of Courage® fundamentals. The Circle of Courage® Model draws on early youth-work pioneers, Native tribal wisdom, coupled with youth development research with outlines of the four essential elements every child needs in order to thrive and flourish: belonging, mastery, independence, and generosity.

Brendtro, Brokenleg, and Van Bockern include innovative approaches for building relationships with youth, fostering their self-esteem, and instilling positive values in classroom, residential treatment, counseling, and correctional settings. The informal and intimate setting of the Circle of Courage® workshop will allow attendees a special opportunity to meet with the three founders of Reclaiming Youth International, and discover how to incorporate the Circle of Courage® philosophy into work and home settings.
